IS BLUEFIT THE RIGHT PLAN FOR YOU?

When choosing a health plan, it's important to understand what kind of care you'll need, how often you'll use it, and if it fits your budget and lifestyle. The following hypothetical member profiles can help you decide whether BlueFit would be a good fit for you.

PEDRO IS IN GOOD HEALTH AND ONLY NEEDS ROUTINE CARE

He likes the idea of growing money over time to pay for health care in the future.

BlueFit may be a good fit for Pedro, because it would cover his routine care, and its built-in Health Savings Account (HSA) would allow him to build tax-free savings for future medical costs.

AMY TAKES GOOD CARE OF HERSELF

She works out often, has an active lifestyle, and likes discounts and rewards.

BlueFit may be a good option for Amy because she can get reimbursements and rewards by practicing healthy habits. The incentives and rewards she earns will be deposited into her HSA to pay for medical expenses now or in the future.

LISA IS MARRIED AND HAS TWO CHILDREN

Her son was injured playing soccer and fractured his leg. Lisa will receive a payment from USABLE Life, an independent company administering the benefit, that's included in her BlueFit plan.

BlueFit may be a good fit for Lisa, because the built in critical illness and accident coverage switches on automatically and pays directly to her, with no claims to file or paperwork to fill out.
