

MASSACHUSETTS

Visit the Opioid
Resource Center

Tips for Protecting Your Teens from Opioid Use Disorder

1. Talk to them. Open, clear communication is an important part of prevention.
2. Set clear rules about substance use, and reward them when they make good choices.
3. Ask the doctor about alternatives to prescription opioids, if they get injured, have surgery or have their wisdom teeth pulled.

Learn More